

Im Sommersemester 2024 als Visiting Fellow am Center for Advanced Studies der LMU:

Patricia Shehan Campbell

Veranstaltungen im Rahmen des Fellowships:

Gastvortrag „Music, Education & Intercultural Understanding“

Dienstag, 28. Mai

10:00 - 12:00 Uhr

LMU Musikpädagogik, Leopoldstr. 13, Raum 1501

Workshop „Musical Pathways to Multicultural-Intercultural Understanding“

Donnerstag, 06. Juni

12:00 - 14:00 Uhr

LMU Musikpädagogik, Leopoldstr. 13, Raum 1501

Workshop „5 Steps into Teaching Music/Culture to Children“

Samstag, 08. Juni

10:00 - 14:00 Uhr

LMU Musikpädagogik, Leopoldstr. 13, Raum 1501

Podiumsdiskussion: „Dialogue: Music Education & Multiculturalism in a Global Society“

mit Irmgard Merkt und Alexandra Kertz-Welzel

Donnerstag, 13. Juni

18:30 Uhr

Center for Advanced Studies der LMU, Seestr. 13

Patricia Shehan Campbell is Professor Emeritus at the University of Washington, where she taught courses at the interface of education and ethnomusicology for 33 years. Her work is in World Music Pedagogy and children's musical cultures, with multiple publications. Campbell is recipient of the 2012 Taiji Award and the 2017 Koizumi Prize for work on the preservation of traditional music through educational practice, and was named an Honorary Member of the Society for Ethnomusicology in 2021. She is educational consultant to Smithsonian Folkways Recordings, the Alan Lomax recordings, and the Global Jukebox.